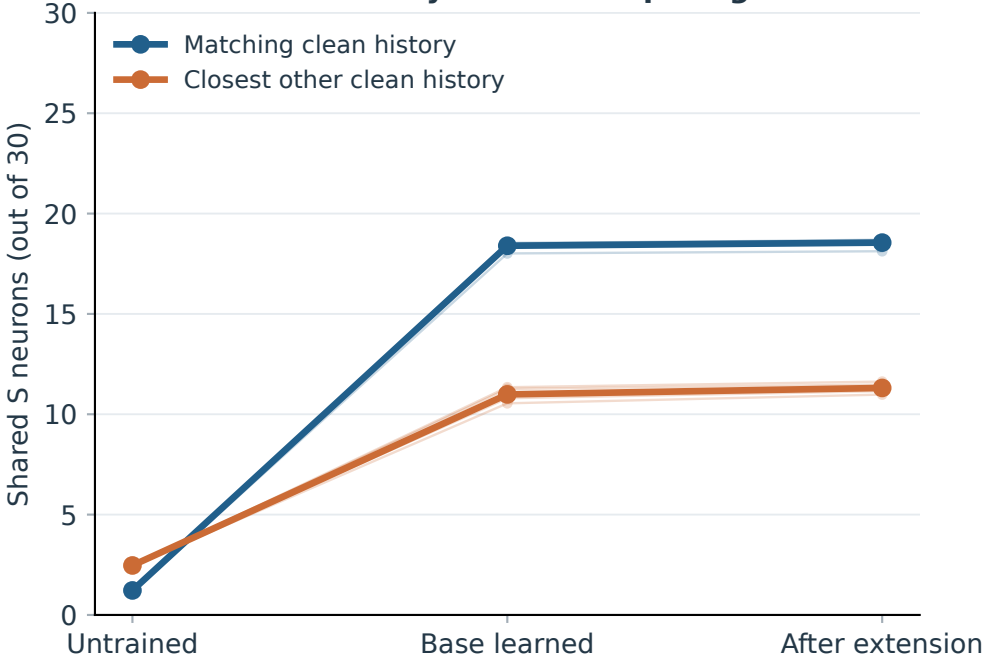
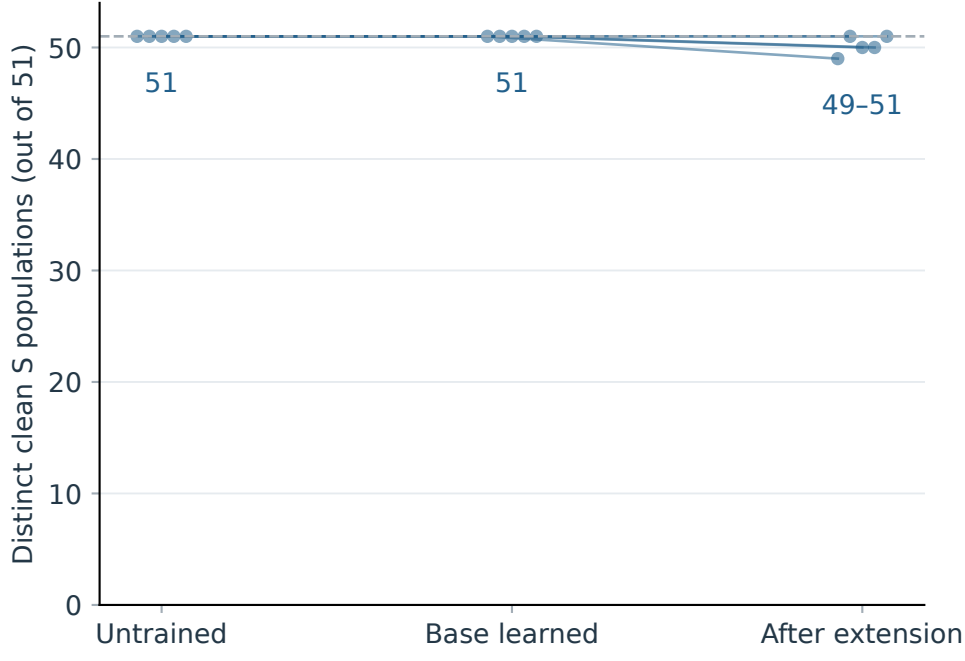
Robustness must preserve the distinction between histories

51 base histories · 10 corrupted trials per history · 5 matched seeds · each seed contributes equally

A Noise consistency versus competing histories



B Check that consistency is not collapse



Thin lines / dots: seed means. Thick lines: mean across seeds. References in panel A are from the same checkpoint.

“Other history” is the strongest-overlapping competitor among the same 51 base histories. Exact equality defines a collision.