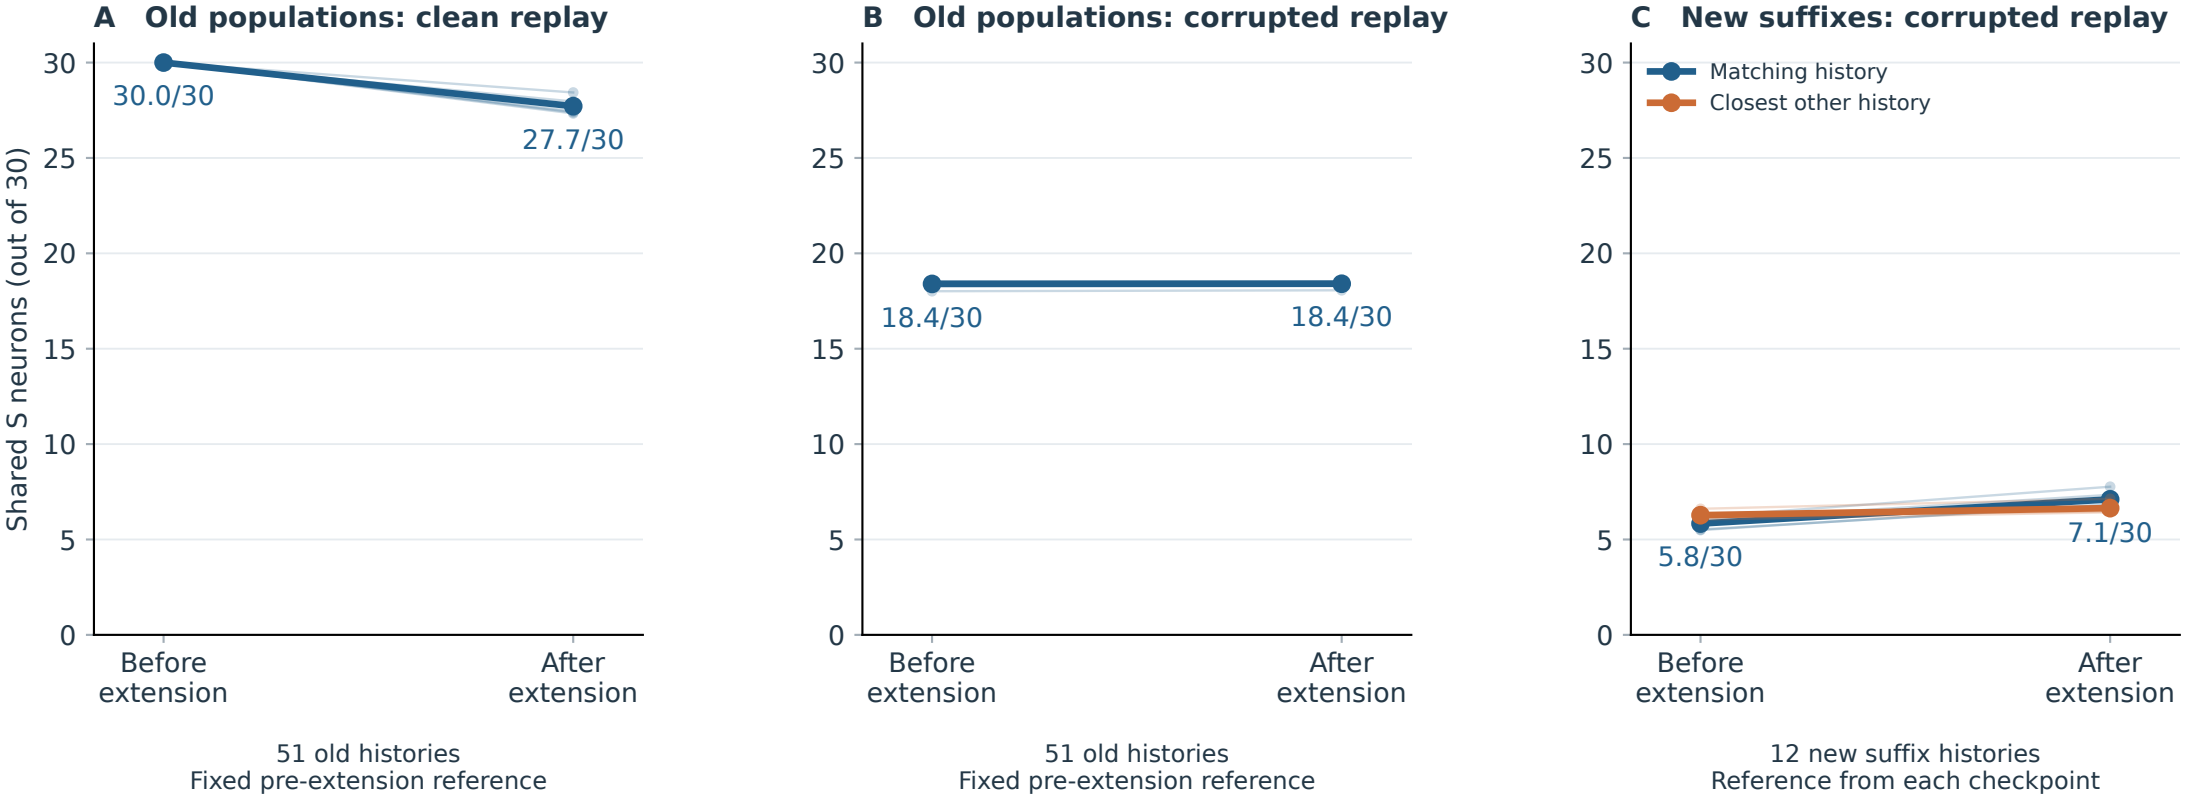
What survives when new sequences are learned?

Old histories and new suffix histories measured separately · 5 seeds · 20 extension epochs without base-word replay



Panels A–B test preservation of the original populations; panel C tests noise consistency, not identity preservation.

Thin lines / dots: seed means. Thick lines: mean across seeds. All corrupted probes use 20% neuron substitution at every input.